--Instructions for reselling “AdSense Profits Unleashed.”

To open the files in this folder you’ll need WinZip. You can get WinZip for free by going to:
<http://www.winzip.com>

To view these files, you’ll need the free Adobe reader, which you can download at:
<http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>

Once you unzip the file, you’ll see a folder called “Reseller Website,” a file named “apu.zip,” a file called “Linkeditorsetup.zip,” and a file called “ImportantInfo.pdf,” which you’re reading right now.

Let’s talk about the Reseller Website folder first.

Open it up and upload all of the files to YOUR web server. Once you have done that you will need to edit the index.html file with YOUR personal information. You will also need to include your payment button/information on the index.html file.

The next file you will need to edit is the thankyou.html file. The download links in thankyou.html MUST point to your server. DO NOT send customers to my download page to download a product that they have bought from you. My download page is monitored and only my paying customers can download from that page. If your customer downloads files from my site, you will be charged a $10 download fee for EACH customer.

Now let’s talk about branding “AdSense Profits Unleashed.”

Unzip the file called “Linkeditorsetup.zip.” Open up the folder and you’ll see an install program called Linkeditorsetup. Run that program to install Linkeditor on your computer. Once it’s installed you will see an icon on your desktop called Linkeditor.exe.

This is the program you will use to brand the product with your personal affiliate information. Below are complete instructions for branding "AdSense Profits Unleashed."

Click on the Linkeditor.exe file.

You will be able to brand all of your affiliate links with this software.

You'll see a button at the top of the screen that says, "Open PDF." Click that button, then upload apu-mrr.pdf into the program. You'll then be presented with a list of affiliate links which you can brand as your own. Enter your information, save the PDF file, then close the program. You will now have your own branded version of "AdSense Profits Unleashed."

That's all there is to it.
